Public Comment

Rev. Troy Delahoussaye and Donnie Childers were present. They wanted to invite the people of Fordoche to join them on June 11, from 11:30am till 2pm, at the Community Center for a day of fun and fellowship. It will be their kick-off for Vacation Bible School. There will be jump houses and such for the children to enjoy. They also wanted the Town to know that if there is anything they can do to help us, just let them know.

Mrs. Annise McGill was inquiring about people living on property without utilities and the sanitation issues that would cause.

Reports

Mayor Gros

We were notified that we were given too much money from the American Rescue Plan. We will have to return $9,622.87.

We're waiting on bids to make some renovations to the senior citizen hall.

All other departments gave a brief report

Police Chief Fred Gueho

For the month of April, 2022, 27 citations were issued and $2,991.00 was collected.

New Business
