Public Comment

Josh Sonnier voiced his concerns about the proposed ordinance that was brought up at the last meeting, wanting to know if that will be an open meeting not a regular business meeting.

Lonnie Kimble questions the council where they were at in the regard to said ordinance.

Reports

Mayor

Some of the dirt from the back side of the community center was used to build a wall at the pond that is washing away. Met with Paul Armand with Parks and Recreation Facilities and Program Manager on the improving the park. Redoing the swing and maybe get something new.

Police Department Report

Chief Slocum reported 0 citations were issued due to the weather conditions. Reported to a burglary and theft at the same residence.

Maintenance

Maintenance Operator Ryan Gautreaux report getting ready for the hurricane that is to be expected. Tarps will be delivered after the storm. They have been working on getting the limbs taken care of on the few streets. There was no chlorine issue as what was thought that was being talked about throughout town.

Drainage Commissioner

Councilwoman Tori Robillard reported still having an issue with the drainage due to that there are still limbs that are hanging over a few of the ditches.

Beautification Commissioner

Councilwoman Beth LaCombe asked to fine John Meche for cleaning. Mayor addressed that he will be showing up to Mayor's court at the end of the month and we will take it from there.

Grass Commissioner

Councilman Kirk LaCombe reported looks like everyone is trying to keep up with grass cutting.

Water Commissioner

Councilman Cody Gros was absent

Park/Recreation Commissioner

The measurement have been given to Mr. Paul Armand to start checking on what they will be able to do to improve our playground.

Adjournment

Motion by Tori Robillard, seconded by Charles Sonnier
